

NORTHWEST CHINA COUNCIL CHINESE LANGUAGE CLASSES Fall 2026

The China Council is offering 10 weeks of Mandarin Chinese language classes in Fall 2026 for students of all ability levels. Classes are small and fun, with lots of speaking and individual attention. Students learn the Pinyin phonetic writing system and Chinese characters (including handwriting and computer typing using the Pinyin input method). For intermediate students, classes aim to develop advanced proficiency in Chinese. We introduce Chinese culture at all levels. Willow Zheng, a native Mandarin speaker with 27 years of experience teaching Mandarin as a second language, teaches all classes. Except where necessary (at the beginning), classes are conducted in Mandarin, which is very beneficial for listening comprehension. We use the ACTFL Proficiency Guidelines to help students use the language in real-world contexts, and we discuss Chinese culture and customs in our classes for students planning to travel to Mandarin-speaking countries.

Classes are via Zoom meetings
